

Multi-Year Accessibility Plan

Background

The Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) was adopted in 2005 with a goal of making Ontario completely accessible for individuals with disabilities by 2025. To reach this goal, businesses and organizations that provide goods and services to people in Ontario, are required to meet certain accessibility standards in 5 areas: (1) Customer Service; (2) Information and Communications; (3) Employment; (4) Transportation; (5) the Design of Public Spaces.

The first standard being implemented is the Customer Service Standard (“CSS”). The purpose of the CSS is to ensure that goods and services are provided in a manner that respects the dignity and independence of persons with disabilities and that persons with disabilities are given an equal opportunity to obtain, use and benefit from the goods and services. The second standard, the Integrated Accessibility Standards (“IAS”), which incorporates the remaining 4 accessibility standards, requires us to establish, implement, maintain and document a multi-year accessibility plan with outlines our strategy to prevent and remove barriers for persons with disabilities through the requirements under the IAS.

The AODA compliments the requirements under the Human Rights Code and other laws that protect disabled persons from discrimination and harassment.
